Welcome from the Headmaster

The Spring Term can often be the most testing, bookended by the exciting prospects of the Autumn Term and the warm glow of the Summer Term. We can look back at this Spring Term however with great fondness as the pupils and staff have ignored the long evenings in order to make the most of the many opportunities on offer. Our varied successes have been well documented this term and I, for one, have struggled to keep pace with the many activities that the children have undertaken. The last week alone has seen a very successful Year 6 Drama production (which I'm looking forward to attending this evening), a Maths Challenge/Puzzle Day, Drum & Guitar Concert, success at Surrey Hockey & Swimming and varied House Swimming Galas. The term will end with a fantastic Spring Concert next week, performed with the usual skill and enthusiasm to a packed Sports Hall, complemented by an impressive display of Art, Textiles and Technology. I can't wait!

This variety has been typified by another year of outstanding Scholarship success, and the latest batch of 13+ awards take this year's tally to 54, an astonishing new height. I am always delighted to hear of how much our Senior School partners value Downsend pupils, but never surprised; after all, I have the pleasure of spending time with them every day. Nevertheless, I want to congratulate the pupils below on their successes:

Finally I want to reflect on the terrible events in Westminster on Wednesday. We watched with horror as the afternoon unfolded and then had to decide whether or not to carry on with our own Year 7 Trip to the Tower of London the following day. There was much soul-searching but, having discussed the matter with the relevant staff and agencies, we decided it was very much 'business as usual'. Parents were unequivocally supportive and the children enjoyed the day immensely. This was resilience and the very best of British values, in a nutshell, and I am extremely proud of the response of all concerned. Jo Cox's widow summed up Wednesday by saying it can be remembered for one act of evil, or thousands of acts of fortitude and kindness. He is an example to us all, and I hope that his inspiration will act as some solace to those affected by the terrible events, whom we hold very much in our thoughts and prayers this week.

End of Term - Wednesday 29 March

Please be aware that term ends for the Lower School at 2.15pm (Upper School siblings may be collected at this time too). The remainder of the Upper School should be collected at 2.45pm.

There is no Extended Day service on Wednesday 29 March.

Lower School Update

As we near the final term of this academic year, I would like to encourage our Year 2 families to begin the Summer Term by dropping their children off at the Turret Door, rather than accompanying them into the Year 2 area. This will enable them to feel more mature and help them to get more organised. I believe that this foray into independence will stand them in good stead when they move into Year 3 in September. Please rest assured that the Year 2 team will be there to help them during this transition.

I would like to wish a very Happy Easter to all of our Lower School Families. It has been wonderful to get to know so many of you this term and I am already looking forward to a very exciting summer at Downsend.

Year 7 Tower of London Trip

On Thursday Year 7 visited London's most popular tourist attraction, the Tower of London. Last term we had studied the Norman Conquest and we saw the White Tower which was built by William the Conqueror. A guide dressed up as a Norman soldier told us all about the Norman Conquest, which was great fun. We saw the Crown Jewels, which were very impressive. Then all of groups in turn went to the Bloody Tower, the Torture Chamber and the White Tower where weapons and armour are displayed. It was interesting to see all of Henry VIII's armour from childhood to the suit he wore as a man – the size difference was quite remarkable! We enjoyed a packed lunch in the sunshine surrounded by the ravens and Beefeaters. After a quick visit to the souvenir shop we returned to school. It was a great trip and I would love to go back to the Tower as there is so much more that I could learn.

Calling all artists!

The Upper School has a new meeting room for children and staff but it is in desperate need of some artwork to hang on the walls to make it a brighter space. If you are creative and have some time over Easter how about entering this competition! We look forward to receiving your entries after the holidays.

Year 7 Achievements

Congratulations to those who have been awarded their next Headmaster's Commendation: Amelia T, Charlotte M, Aimee M and Ted S - happy sewing!

A huge thank you goes to our Spring term Ambassadors who have done a fantastic job supporting their peers, friends and the staff as well as helping in the Lower School from 8.00am and the library; watch this space for the announcement of our new Ambassadors in the Summer term!

Congratulations also go to our top achievers this term from each form. This is determined by the number of house points, credits and commendations awarded through academic work, service to the school community and sport: 7JA Matt K, 7MS Cameron B, 7BD Tom Q and 7RH Eve J; our overall top Year 7 achiever of the term is Matt K (but hot on his heels is Tom Q) – very well done to you all!

As a Year 7 team, we would just like to say how proud we are of all the Year 7s as they have worked hard this term and have also been great company! Happy Easter to everyone in Year 7!

Mrs Mercer, Mrs Day, Mrs Sehgal, Mr Howe and Miss Ayles!

Year 5 History Mystery Day

Year 5 came in to school on Tuesday unaware that their historical source interrogation skills were about to be tested to the limit, firstly by the discovery of a suspicious death in the Peterborough Hall (culprit Mr Thompson; motive, recovery of stolen chocolate) and then by the real life case of Ötzi, whose body was found in the Austrian Alps in 1991, having lain perfectly preserved in a glacier for 40,000 years (killed by an arrow to the chest, culprit unknown).

Each team searched for clues in an archaeological dig, a prehistoric artefact handling session, a QR code treasure hunt using ipads and a source interrogation session in the classroom. Well done to all on your excellent teamwork and congratulations to Team 8 who were overall winners at the end of the day, and massive thanks to the Year 8 facilitators for guiding the teams.

Year 6 Junior Citizen Day – 17 March 2017

Year 6 attended a Junior Citizen Workshop last Friday run by the borough with various professional agencies informing the children of practical advice which will help to keep them safe.

UK Power Network

UK Power Network taught us to be aware of the dangers of electricity and how to keep ourselves safe. First we watched a model of a town that was showing people putting themselves in danger. For example, there were children climbing trees near power lines. They also told us what to do if we accidentally kicked our ball into an electricity sub-station. They told us not to climb over the fence but to call them instead. The number to call is displayed on signs outside the sub-stations.

Fire and Rescue

The fire service spoke to us about how to stay safe in our homes. We were given advice about staying low down in a fire, as that is where the oxygen is, as well as ensuring that when we are outside, we should stay outside to wait for the Fire Service. They also gave advice about appliances, encouraging us not to charge our devices over night or leave dishwashers or washing machines running whilst we are asleep.

Jules T & Jake T, 6TH

Police

I loved the 'Stranger Danger' trick. I found it fascinating how most of us went like sheep to see the Queen's horse. At least a few of us stayed behind and refused to go with the lady. This woman asked why we were there and asked us to go with her. It was a hard decision but unfortunately I went with the pack. At least we now know not to go with strangers!

Jayen N, 6TH

Life Guard

Always keep an eye on the tide when at the beach. If you are walking by the cliffs or climbing, know the tides or you may get trapped and not able to return to shore. Look out for flags on the beach that tell you where it is safe for swimmers or surfers.

Jules T, 6TG

The Blue Cross

This animal welfare charity taught us how to avoid getting bitten by dogs and that people who love dogs are most likely to. The main thing that the lady told us was to keep your face away from the dog and if a dog is getting angry and growling you should stay still and turn your back on it.

Healthy Eating

Here we learnt that our diet contains a lot of sugar, partly because carbohydrates are broken down into sugars but also because sugar is naturally found in fruit and vegetables. We were told that we should not eat more than the equivalent of 7 cubes of sugar a day (24g). It was good fun learning about diets and keeping safe.

Thomas M, 6TH

Year 4 Team Building Day

On Friday 17 March Year 4 took part in Team Building Day. The day was filled with many exciting activities, with a focus on communication skills and working as a team. The skiing activity was a particular favourite! The children worked brilliantly in teams, showing how much can be achieved when we work together. Well done Year 4!

Amy O'Toole

Victorian Day

The Year 2s enjoyed a Victorian day dressed as maids, chimney sweeps, poor people and the gentry. They experienced a typical Victorian classroom with a blackboard, slates, chalk and a particularly strict teacher brandishing her beloved cane!

After a thorough check for clean nails and ears, the morning started with vocal gymnastics to ensure clear and crisp diction, chanting of times tables and also reciting and writing practice of the alphabet. They also enjoyed trying out outdoor Victorian games and finally a drill with Mr Roberts. An end of the day vote revealed the children prefer modern day school life!

Year 6 Play: Roald Dahl: Revolting Grown-Ups

In 1984, when I was eight years old, Roald Dahl published the first volume of his memoir, called "Boy". I was astonished to discover that when he was eight, he went to the same prep school as me! Therefore, it has been a delight to bring extracts from Roald Dahl's childhood to the stage, along with scenes from some of his most famous books, in this, what would have been his one hundredth year.

Mrs Lucy Biszczanik and I have been rehearsing the Year 6 castmembers since January. They have had a lot of lines to learn and moves to remember, whether forming a beanstalk with their bodies or building a car out of school desks. I think they have done a brilliant job and deserve all the applause.

"All through my school life I was appalled by the fact that masters and senior boys were allowed literally to wound other boys, and sometimes quite severely. I couldn't get over it. I never have got over it." – Roald Dahl, "Boy"

At the centre of the play is Roald Dahl himself, played by four different actors over the course of the play: Theo T, Max T, Rory D and Hamin Y. Among the many problems they face were three horrible headmasters (played by Brooke T, Sophie B and Sofia H) who carry a threatening cane. The theme of "revolting grown-ups" comes across strongly in Dahl's writing and is emphasised by characters like the nasty sweet shop owner (played by Rhianna D), the mean Captain Hardcastle (played by Ben W) and the vicious Matron (played by Leah F).

In our play, several of the scenes showcased revolting grown-ups, from the violent mother in "Jack and the Beanstalk" (played by Lexi M) who beat her son (played by Diego R) with the handle of a vacuum cleaner...to the parents who allow their children to get away with all sorts in "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory"...to the Grand High Witch (played by Heulwen K) and the other wicked ladies from "The Witches", played so effectively by boys and girls in dresses, bald caps and wigs!

Fortunately, not all the grown-ups are so awful – Roald's mother (played by Kristy M) is a calm and sane presence in his life and he enjoys visits from Cadbury's representatives handing out free chocolate – although not as much as the audience did as our poor actors nearly got eaten on Wednesday by the excited Lower School audience!

The extracts from the books also showed that adults can be good, such as the entertaining Willy Wonka (played by Alex W). Children, however, can be pretty rotten. Take, for example, Bruno and Augustus Gloop – both played by Reuben L and who both come to a sticky end!

The audience were also treated to some musical numbers inspired by Roald Dahl's works, thanks to the musical direction of Mr Steven Williams. "Pure Imagination" from the film "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory" and the title song from the Dahl-scripted "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang" were enjoyable interludes, although perhaps best of all is "Revolting Children" from the West End musical "Matilda", featuring some exciting choreography from Mrs Elisa Hamer.

There is sadly no room here to mention everyone who participated, whether onstage or behind the scenes, but I am very proud of all the children and wish to extend my thanks to all the teaching, maintenance, catering and administrative staff, as well as parents, who have helped make this show a reality.

Christopher Bryant

Spring Art Competition

On Wednesday evening, King Edward's School in Witley hosted a reception for their Spring Art Competition. The brief had been to recreate a famous piece of art and there were some very imaginative creations on display. Congratulations to Alexander McGregor-Todd, whose 'Captured Collision of Five Van Gogh's' was awarded First Prize! And well done to Sophie Edison, Alice Lowe, Matthew Kefford and Fraser Spalding who exhibited their work alongside pieces from twelve other prep schools.

Design and Technology Update

Design & Technology Department

Head of Technology: Mrs Day

Teachers: Miss Ayfen, Mrs Crowe, Mrs Hayward, Mrs Kirkham, Mr Mitchell, Mrs Sehgal, Mr Turvey

The Design and Technology department has been exceedingly busy this term.

We are delighted that we have our first ever D&T scholarships, both at St John's School. Ella H has been awarded an All-rounder scholarship (Art and D&T), as well as Ed J with a pure D&T scholarship. There is no doubt that Ella's creative flair and Ed's engineering and problem solving skills will be challenged but they will be inspired by with the wealth of opportunities afforded to them in a senior school department.

The Year 2 pupils are thrilled with their designing and making skills in the workshop creating moving monsters and their food preparation and nutrition skills in the food room.

Young designers in Year 3 have been exploring space themed projects; moving vehicles are being inspired by lunar buggies whilst food tech pupils are learning what it is like to eat in space and making space inspired recipes.

A study of Native American cultures inspired sublimation printed dream catchers for pupils in Year 4, where they created repeat patterns from traditional images. Fiddly threads, beading and feathers made for spectacular finishing touches, creating an impressive display. The pupils' appliquéd fabric postcards were also striking and showcased their creative and hand stitching skills. Food tech pupils have been rising to the challenge of bread making as well as developing uniquely tasting biscuits.

There has been a real buzz in the workshop during Year 5 lessons when a range of materials has been used to construct model bird hides. This project has challenged their creative and practical skills but the outcomes are fantastic.

Year 6 pupils are combining their practical skills in wood, fabric and electrical circuits this term. The natural forms theme has generated some exciting designs from storms to horses.

Laser cut acrylic clocks made by the Year 7 pupils are beginning to roll off the production line. Our thanks to the DPA for helping to fund this equipment as the results are incredible and the pupils are so proud of their achievements.

Programming and flying drones, building buggies and soldering have been balanced with fair trade and recipes from around the world in the food room for the Year 8 pupils this term. Finishing the term with CAD work to create intricately cut greeting cards just in time for the end of term!

Pupils from Year 3 to 8 have put their creative juices to work after school in Tech clubs this term. D&T ambassadors Ella H, Maya B, Callum H and Ben S have supported Mrs Hayward with junior tech club, helping the younger designers create some amazing CAM moving toys.

News from the DPA

So we are very nearly at the end of term and we wish all of you a great Easter holiday. Thank you for the volunteers that have come forward for next week's Lower school planting event, we look forward to seeing you on Wednesday

Reminders for next term are:

Recycling Event - 24 April 8am – 9am (Sports Hall)

Remember the house with the highest weight in recycling gets a prize. So if you are doing a spring clean over the holidays please bag up any old clothes ready to bring into school on the day.

As you all know the DPA committee is a volunteer group of parents, most of which are soon to be at the end of their time here at Downsend, we therefore are putting out an urgent appeal for a new committee needed from September 2017. We need a new Chair, a new Treasurer and committee members, it really is a fun and friendly group to be part of and we run a whole mixture of events such as the Christmas fair, the school ball, the Lower School Easter events as well as quiz nights and coffee mornings. We need to stress that without volunteers coming forward to become the new committee the Parents Association at Downsend will cease to be. The great thing with anybody coming forward now, is that we will be here to hand over to you and show you the ropes!
