Message from the Head Teacher

What a super week we have had! We all enjoyed the "Once upon a Time" Bus which was magical. Thank you to Rising Reception parents for reading stories to their child's class and to the staff who found a new class of children to read to. To end the week we all dressed up in such fantastic costumes, the hall was full of all our favourite characters.

Don't Forget!

- On Tuesday parents' evening signing up sheets will be in the front entrance.
- On Wednesday parents of IVL are invited to assembly at 9 a.m.
- On Thursday it will be the last swim for this term.

Easter Egg Hunt and Easter Bonnet parade.

The Easter Bunny will visit us on Wednesday 29 March to see all our beautiful Easter hats and to lay a few eggs for us to find.

Look and See!

If you have a minute this weekend would you all be kind enough to look and see if there are any library books and reading books that may not have found their way back to school and send them in next week in order that we can replenish the boxes.
